MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Judgment Creditor American Industries, Inc., an Oregon corporation (“Judgment Creditor”) respectfully requests that the Court issue an order assigning to it any right or interest held by judgment debtors Fog Cutter Capital Group, Inc., a Maryland corporation, Fog Cap Development, LLC, an Oregon limited liability company, Fog Cap Acceptance Inc., a Delaware corporation, and Andrew A. Wiederhorn, a California resident (each, a “Judgment Debtor;” collectively, “Judgment Debtors”) in management fees, proceeds, receivables, royalties, franchise fees or other monetary payment due or to become due from non-judgment debtor Fatburger Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Fatburger”), or any of its subsidiaries, to the extent necessary to pay Judgment Creditor’s judgment in full, including accrued interest through the date of payment. Judgment Debtor Fog Cutter Capital Group is believed to own a controlling interest in Fatburger, which in turn operates or franchises a number of hamburger restaurants throughout the United States and abroad. Judgment Creditor further requests that the Court enter an order restraining the Judgment Debtors from assigning or otherwise disposing of their rights or interests in such payment. Relief is requested pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 708.510 and 708.520.

On July 7, 2015, this Court entered a judgment against Judgment Debtors in the amount of $1,065,303.00, plus interest and costs. On September 25, 2015, the Court issued a Writ of Execution authorizing Judgment Creditor to enforce the judgment against Judgment Debtors. Following issuance of the Writ of Execution, Judgment Creditor procured roughly $10,778.77 from Judgment Debtor Mr. Wiederhorn’s bank account. No further amounts have been collected by Judgment Creditor on account of its judgment, despite its extensive enforcement efforts—which include recording an abstract of judgment in Multnomah County, Oregon—and despite the fact that Judgment Debtor Fog Cutter Capital Group, Inc. holds an

1 ownership interest in Fatburger Holdings, Inc., which in turn owns a number of 2 successful hamburger chain restaurants all over the United States.

3 Accordingly, an assignment order directing to Judgment Creditor any 4 proceeds due or to become due to Judgment Debtors from Fatburger (or its 5 subsidiaries) is appropriate and necessary at this time.

6 II. ARGUMENT

7 A. The Court may order Judgment Debtors to assign any right to payment 8 to Judgment Creditor.

9 Code of Civil Procedure Section 708.510 authorizes a Court to issue an order
10 directing the judgment debtor to assign to a judgment creditor (or to a receiver) all 11 or part of a right to payment due or to become due, including, but not limited to,
12 wages due from the federal government that are not subject to withholding under an 13 earnings withholding order, rents, commissions, royalties, payments due from a
14 patent or copyright, insurance policy loan value, accounts receivable, general
15 intangibles, judgments and instruments. Although the Court may take into 16 consideration all relevant factors, the sole constraints placed on the Court are that 17 the right to payment be assigned only to the extent necessary to satisfy the 18 creditor's money judgment and that, where part of the payments are exempt, the 19 amount of the payments assigned should not exceed the difference between the 20 gross amount of the payments and the exempt amount. Code of Civil Procedure
21 § 708.510(c), (d), (e) and (f).

22 Here, Judgment Creditor only seeks any assignment order in an amount
23 necessary to satisfy its unpaid money judgment, which, including accrued interest
24 to the date of this motion, is at least $1,081,496.60. Since the judgment was 25 entered less than 10 years ago, and since no order exists staying enforcement of the 26 judgment, this Court is authorized to issue an assignment order for Judgment
27 Creditor. Judgment Creditor is not aware of any right by Judgment Debtors to 28 assert an exemption as to proceeds due or to become due from Fatburger.

B. The court can restrain Judgment Debtors from assigning, disposing or otherwise diverting their right to payment from Fatburger.

Code of Civil Procedure Section 708.520 authorizes the Court to restrain Judgment Debtors from assigning or otherwise disposing of the right to payment sought to be assigned upon a showing of need. Such a showing of need is set forth in the declaration that accompanies this memorandum. Consequently, Judgment Debtors must be restrained so that the right to payment sought to be assigned will be available to be applied to Judgment Creditor's judgment.

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Judgment Creditor respectfully requests that the Court order an assignment of the right to payment due or to become due to Judgment Debtors by Fatburger or any of its subsidiaries in the amount of the money judgment, which balance is at least $1,081,496.60 as of the date of this motion, plus accruing interest of $145.93 per diem through the date of payment. In addition, the Court should enjoin Judgment Debtors from assigning or otherwise disposing of their right to such payment from Fatburger.
